Hi All

Here is a quick summary of the main Chihuahua winners at the Toy Dog Show. We were in our new venue for the first time with the new floor covering of artificial grass. It is very nice to show on and looks terrific.

I showed a boy for Lynn Jenkin and he though it lovely and entertained the crowd by scooting around on his tummy with his back legs out having a good old tummy scratch!. He is a bit of a clown!!

Overall 299 Toy entries quite a bit down on the last few years. We had 3 local Victorian judges. The Chihuahua breeds were judged by Mrs Stephanie Rickard and Show by Mr Ashley Reid.

(I think all these dogs have a page on dogzonline if you want to check them out)

Long Dog: 35 longs

CC & RUBOB *Morrano Tiger Kelly (Yates) (Made his title)
RCC Ch Dearchi Lil Tacka (Collett)

Long Bitch:
CC & BOB Ch Reynosa It's My Party (Micklem)
RCC *Ch Dearchi Motown Melody (Dearness)

Smooth Dog: Not sure of the number, but about the same as the longs.

CC & BOB *Gr Ch Dearchi Sonny Washington (Dearness)
RCC & RUBOB Gr Ch Wachowa Imona High (M & R Ackland / J Watts) Also Best Aust Bred in Show

Smooth Bitch:
CC *Morrano Cindy Buttons (Yates) (14 pts)
RCC *Morrano Marcia Buttons (Yates) Both these bitches are litter sisters and first day out of baby

Also, Best Baby in show - Long Coat - Dearchi Beau Washington (Dearness) A very promising son of Sonny Washington and Motown Melody

Both BOB's were run in the final few for the show.

* My own little indulgence!!.....These dogs with the * are all by my boy Ch Reynosa Time For a Tosca. Although my name doesn't appear above, I am so proud of them all. I was privileged to handle the BOB long whilst her owner was held up in the Cavalier ring.

It was lovely to see a good number of Chis shown. Many classes of a good size. Several newer exhibitors present and doing well. Great to see.
